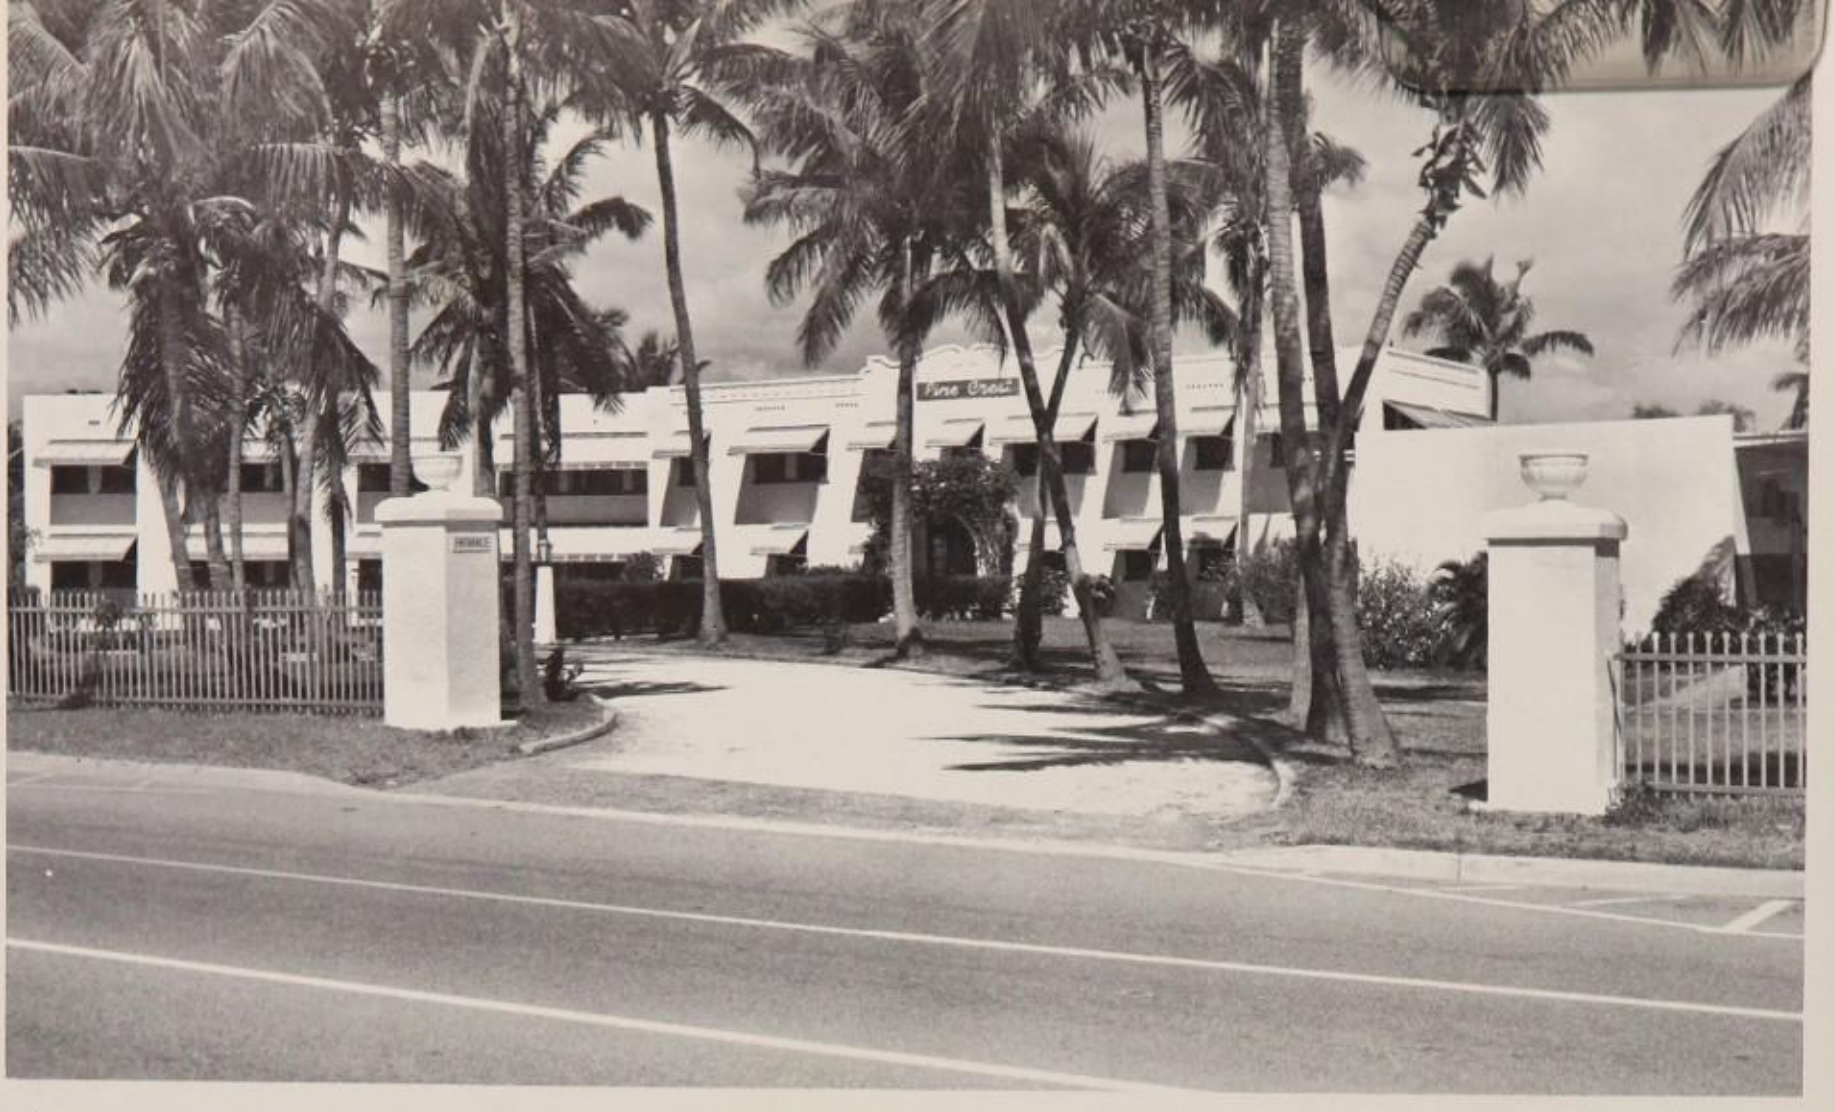
CRESTIAN '71
VOL. 25

Pine Crest School
1501 N.E. 62nd Street
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida



The class of '71
Left an old campus
For a new Pine Crest.

They saw it grow
And in turn Grew along with it.

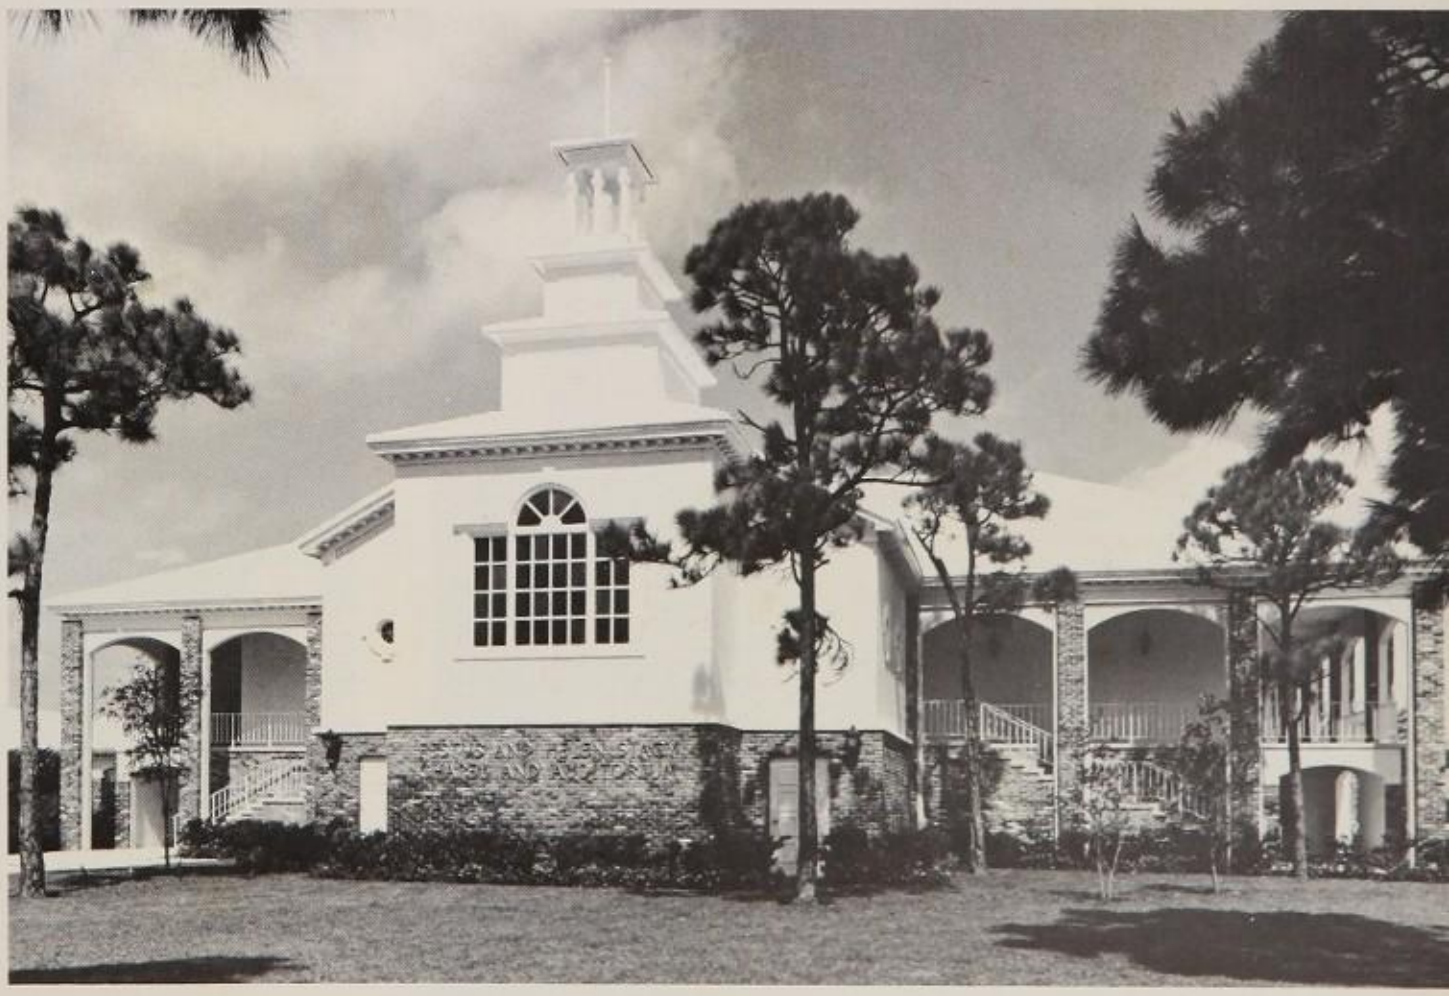
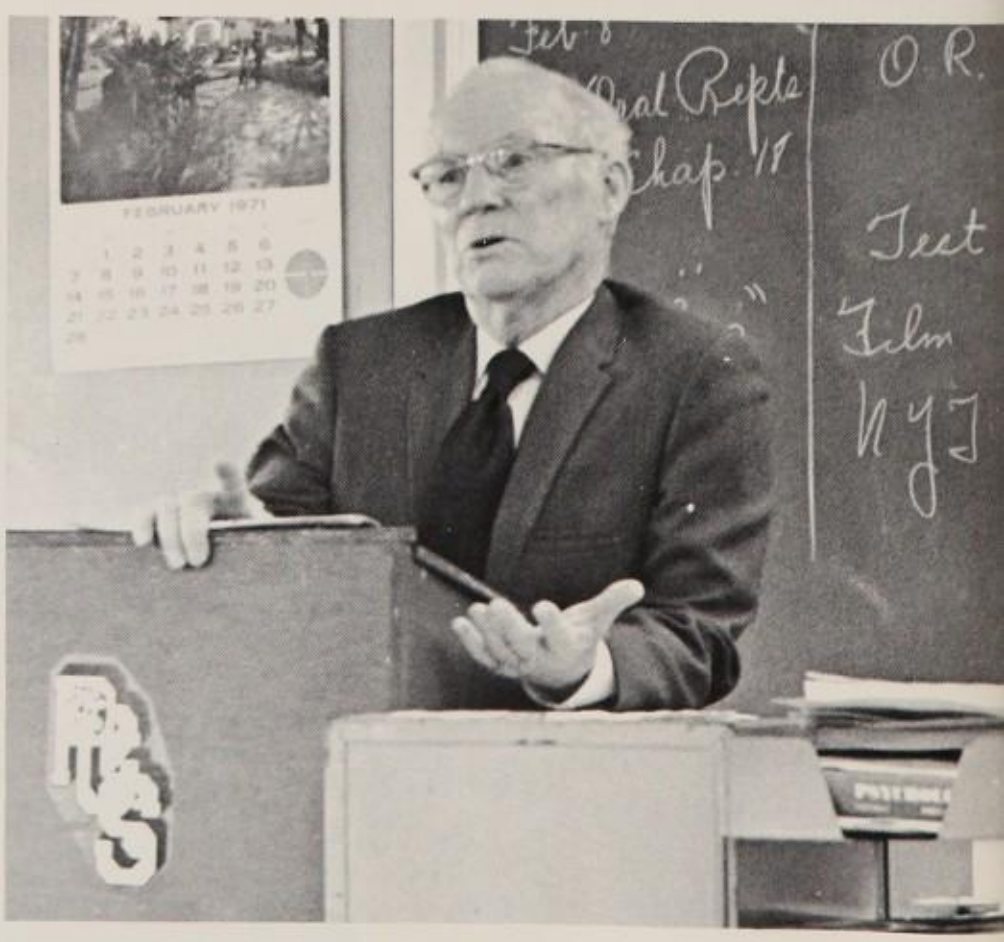
A prairie,
With buildings,
A lab . . . A gym . . . An auditorium . . .

As Pine Crest grows
Through its students,
So will each class
Grow and mature,

And remember . . .





O.R.
Test
Film

In most schools there are a few teachers who stand out above the others. At Pine Crest we have a couple who certainly are representative of this kind of teacher. Not only have they given their students a greater understanding of America and the rest of the world through history, but they also have devoted their time and energies to promoting school spirit and the many projects involved with the Upper and Middle Schools. It is with much respect and affection that we dedicate the 1971 Crestian to Mr. and Mrs. Repke.

Yesterday I saw a child running through Life at a carefree pace,
just living life as it happened.

Through the cosmic window of Time
he looked at tomorrow with a wide-eyed expectance and Hope.

So many things it seemed,
he had known—and things he had done;
but before him, Life was just unfolding.

Our child, now grown,
has fallen to the depths of sorrow
and has reached the peaks of laughter.

Though our man has lived and learned, his mind will continue to grow long after his education has terminated.

Now the future is bright with promise; he knows of people and he knows of places . . . he knows of LIFE.

Vhere do ve go now?

Leaving Le Rosey HALLELUJAH!!!

On July 2, 1970, twenty-nine students and five adults left on the Pine Crest European Tour. Before going to Le Rosey School in Rolle, Switzerland, where they spent five weeks, the tour made stops in London, Berlin, and Rome (Pinch City). Everyone became good friends, and all shared in the great experiences Europe had to offer. After Le Rosey, the tour continued on to Madrid and Paris.

To mention just a few of the highlights: 747's . . . "this way, Pine Crest" . . . Hair . . . last night in London . . . birthdays . . . Big Eden . . . Charlie, Jacques, and El Chefo . . . Also Wednesday night lakeside strolls . . . wrong dock . . . "bats in the room!" . . . X Biere (sans alcohol) . . . diets . . . sisons . . . the Swiss Army . . . Zermatt after curfew . . . Suite 23 . . . last night in Paris . . . Last and probably least, your friend and mine, Mickey Mouse. It was a fantastic trip!!

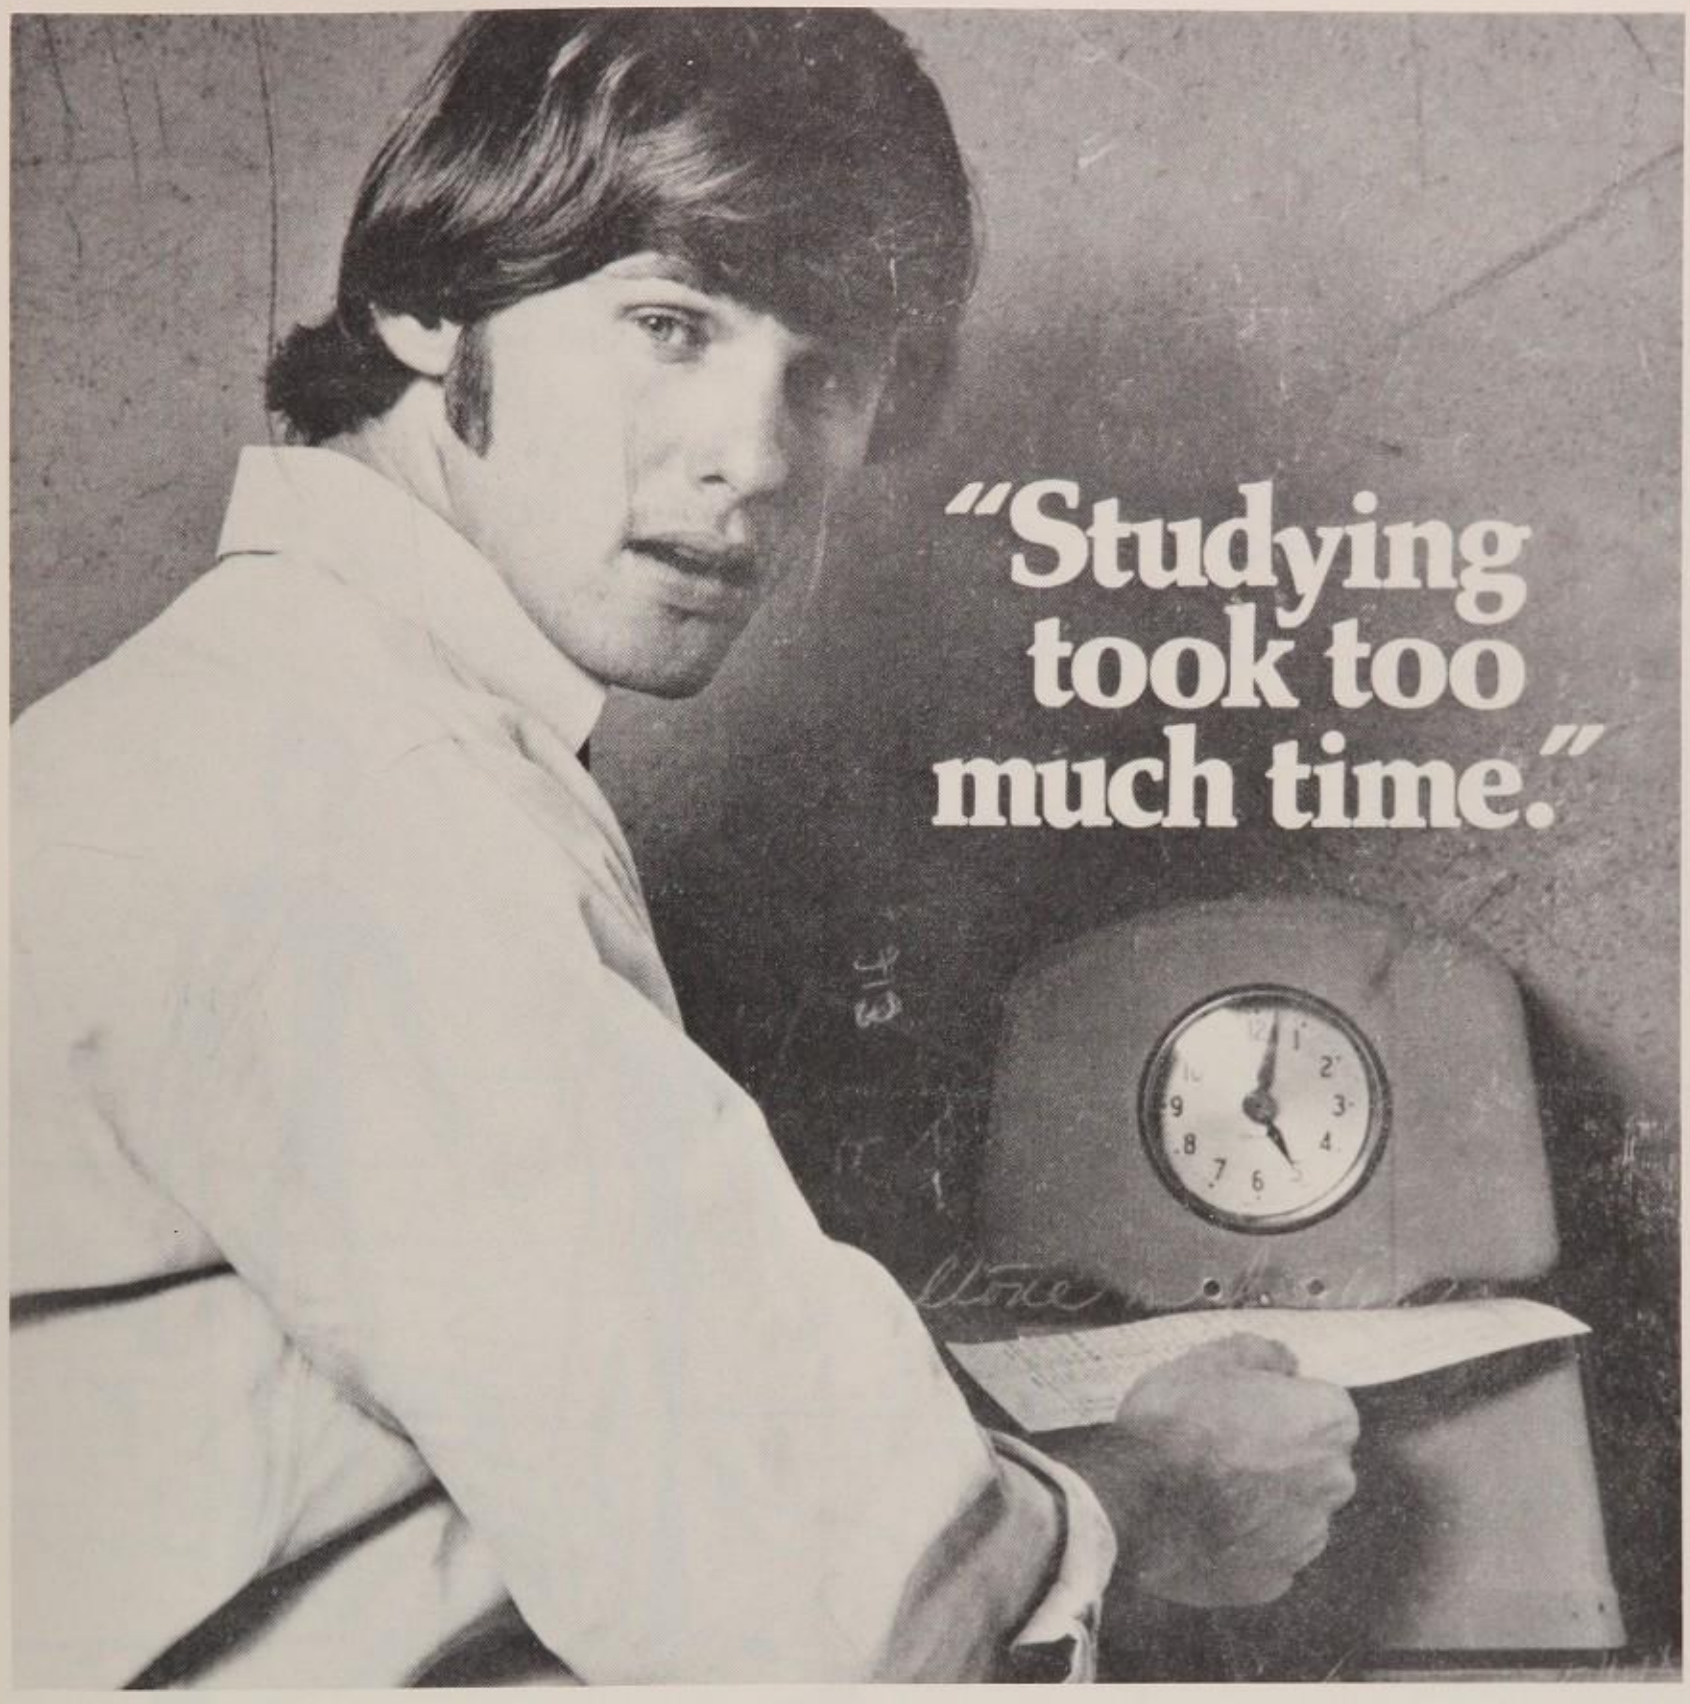
"A NICE PLACE TO VISIT"



Now Dave puts in his time on a job with little or no future.
And unless he completes his education, his time is going to run out.
His time to get ahead. His time to get a promotion.
His time to get a better salary. His time to succeed in life.
Stay in school. It can save you a lot of time.

i remember the wonder of creating a picture in paint
all my own
i remember
climbing the monkey bars stretching my arms out to touch the sky reaching the highest place in my little world
i remember
digging into the portion of the beach that was transferred to the city just for me and seeing that no two were alike
i remember watching flowers open and reveal their beauty for all to enjoy the park in spring
each new blade of grass glistening with dew and feeling the smooth branches where children have left the mark of their presence we were all children then discovering what all children discover in the annals of time

There wasn't anything
There isn't anything
  and yet the cinders glow, Stirring about – lurking with minds of evil.
An ash that says,
  "Good Morning, Afternoon and Evening" Upon the day we sit so heavily– Entitled to nothing.
Expecting forever.
  Today expired. Ended with a shock.
It will take three days (at least until tomorrow)
To bring the tide home (to me).
There wasn't anything.
There isn't anything
  But, now, a fire burns.

Seal of Approval!!

I walked to the sea where I saw a child playing in the sand building sand castles
just to tear them down and start again
A girl with a boy walking on the shore playing with the waves having fun content to be with each other An old man stooping over a stick peering among some leaves looking for nothing
alone

Then I turned around I saw my footprints disappearing under the waves I stood in front of the sea when a wave swirled the sand and touched my feet

You and I have memories longer than the road that stretches out ahead.

Beatles

Hello ?

Hi there Jo!

Well, as I said to Mary, it's been quite a year between windows, locked doors, and everything else. If all that happened this year - heaven help us next year. Oh well, see ya then!

Luv,

Lusie Rieger

Well ya.
Its been a good ½ yr. Remember Tampa, and Connie, & Frisch's. Ed, Zac, Dave, Candles, little plants, mushrooms, pagan pink and bacardi. Horse back ricking, bowling, pool hall drive-in,
fights, sob stories, laughin, crying, long distance calls, Pennsylvania-Roscoe, and "Friends" (by Elton John!) I hope next year there aren't as many hassles & twice as many good times. Write and tell me 'bout Rick + Connie, & "Junior"???
(no. I hope you get to Bill's Dr.
first!) anyway, be good & try at least and 'member the golden rule of Ed, Zac, & the flying mattress!
love ya,
Karen
